- Each summer, members nominate local kingdom-focused ministries and non-profits serving women and children.
- The Research Committee reviews nominees, and a member of the Research Committee will visit organizations moving forward for a site visit. Aspiring grantees submit their applications, and the Research Committee narrows down the finalists.
- Finalists record a video presentation of their proposal, which is shared electronically with the women early in the following year.
- Members vote electronically to choose how to award funds - either shared equally or intended for one grantee. Shared memberships are encouraged to select a designated representative to vote on their behalf. Award amounts are based upon membership vote.
